A WORD OF WARNING.—There are many white soaps, each represented to be "just as good as the "lyory"; " they are not, but like all counterfeits, lack the peculiar and remarkable qualities of the genuine. Ask for "lyory" Soap and insist upon getting it.

National City Bank Shortly to Inease Its Capital.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL. New York, Jan. 2.—The National City Bank will shortly have a capital of $10,000. institution in the United States. Heretofore it has had a capital of only $1,000,000.

Of all the banks in North America, the National City Bank will, in the size of its capital, be exceeded only by the Bank of Montreal, which has a capital of $15,00,000.

In a surplue of $5,00,000. Unlike this instiation, however, the resources of the Nadonal City Bank will be confined to one blace, as under the national banking laws of this country, branch escablishments are not permitted. In Canada the laws are more liberal and the Bank of Montreal has branch offices in every important city in the Dominion, besides agencies in New

The decision is increase the capital of the National City Bank was reached today at a special meeting of the sie-kholdear. Of the total number of shores outstanding (20,00) there were reported in persoon and by prays $2.57 shares. By a vote of $237 shares in favor and no shares against it, a resolution was adopted providing for the increase.

The efficial announcement of the disposition of the new stock as given out by James Stillman, president of the bank, was as follows:

By a further vote of $2.57 shares in favor 60, which will make it the largest banking a further vote of 9.287 shares in favor By a further vote of 2.27 shares in favor to 31 shares (represented by an executor, who declared himself personally in favor of the resolutions, but prevented by the terms of his trust from voting therefort, it was further resolved that of the increased capital stock 85 per cent be allotted to all the stockholders at par and the remaining 15 per cent be allotted to Mr. Henry Parish, as irustee, to be apportioned by him in his discretion among the airectora, to be elected January 9, next, they paying therefor $150 per share, of this $150 per share $50 is to be distributed among the present stockholders, thus reducing their payment to about $51 per share and the remaining $100 per share being payable to the bank.

SEVERE CROSS-EXAMINATION.

Questioned by Recorder and Jurers-Doctor Weston Gave a Detailed Story of the Post-Mortem Examination.

New York, Jan. 2.- The forty-seventh day of the trial of Roland P. Molineux for the murder of Mrs. Katherine J. Adams opened with Harry S. Cornish again on the stand. The cross-examination of Cornish by Attorney Weeks was the feature of the day's proceedings, Mr. Weeks commenced the cross-examination of Coralsh by inquiring about the hour of his return home from the Knickerbocker Athletic Club on the night of December 27, 188, Cornish acknowledged that he was mistaken in previous testimons as to the hour. The lines of the cross-ques tioning were soon shifted, Mr. Weeks apparently attempting to show that Mr. Cornish, after twenty years of caring for athletes, ought to know the taste of brome seltzer. The witness was next compelled to run a gantlet of questions regarding his relations with the various members of the household of Mrs. Adams, Cornish testified that he could not remember who first told him that Mrs. Rogers, the daughter of Mrs. Adams, had separated from her husband.
Cornish testified that he went to Chicago in 1835, and that his wife obtained a divorce from him in March, 1835.
Under a never cross-examination, he admated that he knew a Mrs. Small; that she Cornish's Hiness.

Mr. Weeks then compelled the witness to go over the story of his own filness on the morning of the death of Mrs. Adams once again. He was closely questioned concerning his visit to the editic of Mr. Vocum, whom cornins typical his best friend. He was asked as to the roate that he took in going from Yocam's office uptown on December 2. This line of questioning was significant, as it developed the fact that Cornish passed the general post office, and that he had thus been given the opportunity of mailing the pelson package almiself. Cornish never finched, but acknowledged his making the witness ucknowledged discrepancies concerning the time of the recipit of the bromo-seltzer, also errors in his statements to newspapers as to the manner in which he was divised in the Adams apartiments on the morning of the murder. Cornish also acknowledged that at one time he thought Felix J. Gaillander wrote the Heripter letter. When Interregated regarding vertain statements given out to the reporters, Cornish said that be had searched for manifold copies and notes at the clubhouse, but that they had been stolen. He denied making an appointment with a representative of the New York Journal, and offering to sell for $1,000 a story as to who went the pelson, but he acknowledged the meeting for the purpose of ascertaining who first gave Mollneur's name to the Journal.
